

I feel that by have our XM service restricted from our already offered services, you will violating our rights as paid subscribers. This is a service that we are paying for and we should not be told what we can and cannot listen to. Please stop trying to take our paid service's away from us. Thank you..